

GRENADA CITIZENSHIP BY INVESTMENT

PRESS RELEASE

Thomas Anthony appointed Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Grenada Citizenship by Investment Unit

March 16, 2023 – Chairman of the Grenada Citizenship by Investment (CBI) Committee, Richard W. Duncan, OBE today announced the appointment of Thomas Anthony, Citizenship by Investment Consultant, as Chief Executive Officer of the Grenada CBI Unit effective April 3, 2023.

Thomas Anthony is a former commercial, retail and investment banker with 26 years' experience working in Banking and Financial Securities sectors in Antigua, Saint Lucia and Miami, USA. Thomas served in various roles to include Financial Advisor, Portfolio Manager, Loans Manager, Debt Recovery Manager, Investment Manager and Wealth Manager.

His experience in the Investment Migration Industry includes:

- Project Development Officer, Deputy Chief Executive Officer and Chief Executive Officer (Ag.) of the Antigua Citizenship by Investment Unit from 2013 to 2017.
- Global Head ICV (Immigration, Citizenship and Visa) at Exiger, a global Governance, Risk and Compliance firm from 2017 to 2018.
- Chief Executive Officer of the Grenada Citizenship by Investment Unit from 2018 to 2019.

Thomas is a Certified Financial Crime Specialist (CFCS), an Accredited Director (Acc. Dir.), and a member of the Chartered Institute of Bankers (ACIB).

As CEO, Thomas Anthony will be accountable for leading and implementing the vision and strategies of the Grenada Citizenship by Investment Programme with due regard for economy, efficiency and effectiveness in compliance with Grenada Citizenship by Investment Act, 2013 as amended and regulations; and in accordance with best practices; and the attainment of all Key Performance Targets.

Karline Purcell, Deputy Chief Executive Officer, has been acting as CEO since 2021 and shall continue as Deputy CEO.